Brigadier General Henry E. Emerson, USA
Commanding General
USA JFK Center for Military Assistance
Fort Bragg, North Carolina 28307

Dear General Emerson:

I appreciate your taking the time to see [REDACTED] Deputy Director of Training, about the planned reassignment of [REDACTED].
[REDACTED] informs me that you very much regret the loss
[REDACTED] and are high in your praise of his past services. We appreciate these kind remarks and are pleased to know that the Agency has been helpful to the John F. Kennedy Center for Military Assistance.

While I regret that the Agency staffing pattern does not permit the assignment of a replacement for [REDACTED] I am confident that the Agency will be able to support you in many of the same ways we have in the past.
To facilitate prompt Agency action on future requests, please contact Mr.
[REDACTED] by telephone (Area Code [REDACTED]) or by mail:

[REDACTED]
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C. 20505

Again, I appreciate your cooperation in the matter of [REDACTED] release for a very important overseas assignment and your kind reception
[REDACTED]

Sincerely,

/s/ L. K. White
